NEWH Board Members provide the leadership for their chapters/regions to educate and strengthen their local hospitality communities. Being a board member is a very important role to the organization and these exceptional volunteers gain communication skills and friendships with high profile professionals. To be a board member, you must be an active voting member.

GENERAL membership is open to professionals who have been actively involved in Hospitality or a related field for one or more years.

ASSOCIATE membership is open to those industry members who have, within a twelve (12) month period, completed an accredited area of Hospitality-related studies. Associate members cannot hold an elected office, but are encouraged to serve on chapter board committees.

STUDENT membership is open to those who are attending any accredited institution in Hospitality or a related field. Student members will receive a one-year courtesy Associate membership upon graduation in order to facilitate the transition to General membership.

EDUCATOR membership is open to those persons who are full-time educators for Hospitality Studies, to include Architecture, Asset Management - Hospitality Industry Studies, Culinary Arts, Environmental Design, Food Service Management, Hospitality & Restaurant Management, Hotel Administration, Interior Design, International Hotel Management, Nutrition Management, Tourism & Convention Administration, and Travel & Tourism.

RETIRED membership is for the General member after retirement. The dues structure is reduced to make continued service possible.

NETWORKING, EDUCATION & EVENTS

NEWH delivers high quality programs at international and regional events throughout the year.

Local Events 30 chapters and regional groups plan dynamic social and educational events that build community, share knowledge and create opportunities to connect in your local area.

Regional Tradeshows Intimate shows offer the opportunity to see new products and services paired with engaging social events to strengthen and grow your network.

Green Voice A fresh approach to sustainability education, where you will find pioneering solutions to our most urgent challenge.

Leadership Conference A biennial event held in high profile hospitality regions bringing the leaders of the industry together to inspire creative exchange through education and networking.

BrandED Conversations with the hospitality industry's leading brand executives around the globe.

EDOnline Free to all members, EDOnline provides a wealth of educational resources including accredited CEU courses, product and specification guides, white papers, and more.
