

Jacquelyn P. Parker

Las Vegas, NV | 248.890.5572 | parkej15@unlv.nevada.edu

---

Education

Bachelor of Science in Interior Architecture and Design

University of Nevada, Las Vegas — May 2024

Bachelor of Arts in Sociology and Communications

University of Michigan — June 1992

---

Interior Design Experience

Interior Design Intern

KME Architects, LLC — Las Vegas, NV

October 2023 – May 2024

- Developed construction documents and ensured title blocks accurately recorded essential information.
  - Managed design projects from initial planning to completion, ensuring deadlines and design goals were met.
  - Conducted research on materials, methods, and specifications, presenting findings in comprehensive reports.
  - Designed commercial buildings such as offices, hotels, and airports, using Revit software for virtual modeling.
-

Projects & Participation

- HD 2023 Expo, Mandalay Bay Convention Center, Las Vegas, NV: Presented innovative design concepts.
  - Designed commercial spaces: Office buildings, metro airports, hotels, mental health centers, and cottages.
  - Created furniture designs and custom crate shipping solutions.
-

Professional Organizations

- Member, ASID (American Society of Interior Designers) — September 2021 – Present
- Student Member, NEWH (The Hospitality Industry Network) — May 2023 – Present

---

Relevant Coursework & Projects

Design Professions of Architecture Study

- Explored the interplay between human interaction and the built/natural environment.
- Analyzed global design impacts, including cultural progression and environmental sustainability.

Development of Architectural Concepts

- Researched and developed abstract architectural concepts within social, cultural, and environmental contexts.
- Gained proficiency in design tools such as Revit, InDesign, and Lumion.

---

Skills

- Design Software: Revit, InDesign, Lumion
- Project Management: Design planning, execution, and budget management
- Technical Abilities: Material research, FF&E selection, and construction documentation

---

Previous Work Experience

Departmental Statistical Analyst

State of Michigan, Department of Labor & Economic Growth — October 1999 – 2015

- Analyzed employment and salary data for over 3,500 Michigan government agencies and nonprofits.
- Produced statistical trend reports for management and ensured accuracy in state and federal data submissions.
- Trained new employees in state and federal guidelines for reporting and analysis.